

The Adventures of Smartie the Penguin

It was late at night and Smartie the Penguin was WIDE awake... He was too excited to sleep because tomorrow was his birthday. He was really hoping to be given a new tablet!

The big day came and Smartie had really enjoyed his birthday party. He had saved his most exciting looking present until the end.

“Oh I really hope this is a tablet of my own!” he thought as he began to open it.

Smartie tore off the wrapping paper in a hurry! Mummy and Daddy Penguin had bought him a brand new tablet. Just what he wanted!

Oh! Thank you,
thank you, thank you!

Smartie's parents enjoy using the internet and are always there to help Smartie.

Smartie was allowed to play on his tablet once in the morning and once in the afternoon.

Mummy Penguin helped Smartie to get online and he was off!

Smartie was having a super time and decided to use the internet to find out more about polar bears. When Smartie tapped 'search,' something strange popped up on his screen.

It was scary and Smartie didn't know what to do. ⁶

“Oh no!” thought Smartie. “One of the pictures looks a little scary, I don’t want to see that! I hope Mummy and Daddy won’t think I’ve searched for this!”

Oh no! I don't want to see that!

Smartie saw that there was a red cross in the corner so he tapped it but it just made the picture even bigger!

Can you help Smartie make the right decision?

Should he try to fix the problem by himself and get rid of the picture, or should he ask his parents for help? Finish the sentence : Smartie should _____ “Help!” cried Smartie. “Daddy, Mummy, please help me! Something has gone terribly wrong. There’s a scary picture on my screen and I don’t want to see it.”

"Well done Smartie," said Daddy Penguin.

"You are a SUPERSTAR!

Well done for asking for help and not trying to fix it by yourself.

The red cross doesn't always get rid of things
so it is best to ask us to help you."

Mummy Penguin was so pleased with what Smartie had done, she taught him a song to help him make sensible choices on the internet in the future...

Sing with me!

Before you tap and click...

You need to stop and think...

And TELL
someone!

Mummy Penguin deleted the picture that had popped up and Smartie continued to play on his tablet.

The next morning, Smartie rushed downstairs to keep looking online. Daddy Penguin was already up and about, reading his newspaper in the kitchen.

Smartie went on to the internet and typed in, 'All about polar bears.'

Smartie tapped on the first website but it was very confusing! It said that polar bears live on the beach but Smartie was sure they liked the cold weather, just like him!

Smartie thought that everything on the internet was true, but this didn't sound right. He was feeling very confused.

This is so strange,
what do I believe
now?!

This doesn't sound right!

They drive cars

What should Smartie do? _____

Should he just believe what the internet says or should he ask for help to find the right information?

Let's help Smartie to make the right decision by singing Mummy Penguin's song! One, two, three...

All sing together!

Before you tap and click...

You need to stop and think...

And TELL
someone!

“Help!” shouted Smartie. “Mummy, Daddy, please help me. I’m trying to find out more about polar bears but the information doesn’t sound right!”

“Smartie,” replied Mummy Penguin, “what a CLEVER little penguin you are! Not everything online is true so it is always best to check with a grown up first.”

Mummy Penguin helped Smartie find the right information and everything was fine again.

Later on that afternoon...

Can you guess what Smartie was doing?

That's right! Smartie was back on his tablet playing his favourite game, Snowcraft. He was getting better and better and trying to beat his top score from yesterday.

All of a sudden, the tablet beeped and a message appeared on the screen. Another player was trying to talk to Smartie. Smartie felt quite excited.

The other player continued to talk. "Where do you live?" she asked. Smartie wanted to reply; he wanted to be friendly. But he was also beginning to feel worried.

What should Smartie do?

Should he reply to the message and talk to the other player or should he tell Mummy and Daddy instead? Smartie should _____ Let's help Smartie to make the right decision by singing his special song! One, two, three...

Let's sing together!

Before you tap and click...

You need to stop and think...

And TELL
someone!

“Daddy Penguin!
Mummy Penguin!”
called Smartie.

“Someone is trying to talk to me and I don’t know them. What shall I do?”

“Oh Smartie,
you have been so SENSIBLE,” said Daddy Penguin.

“The other player was asking for your personal information. You must keep your personal information safe online and never share it with anyone.”

“What other things are my personal information?” asked Smartie.

Time to chat

“Your name, date of birth, home address, school address, email address, phone numbers and passwords are all personal information,” replied Daddy Penguin.

"If you're not sure about someone who is talking to you, or they make you feel worried, then always tell us. Not everybody tells the truth on the internet, and because you don't know this person in the real world, they are still a stranger.

I will show you how you can stop this player from speaking to you again."

From that day on, Smartie the Penguin always knew how to be safe when using his tablet and playing on the internet!

If anything happened that made him feel worried, upset or confused he didn't try to fix things by himself...

Time to chat

He stopped...
