The Story of Adam and Eve

God said:
"Let there be light!"

On the third day God created the land and the seas. He also created plants and trees.

On the fourth day God created the Sun, the Moon and the stars.

On the fifth day God created birds and sea creatures.

On the sixth day, God created animals to fill the Earth. God also created humans to enjoy and care for all that he had made.

On the seventh day God rested. God was happy with all he had made.

God made a garden in Eden for Adam. It was beautiful.

God did not want Adam to be alone, so He created woman, Eve. Now they could enjoy all that God had made together.

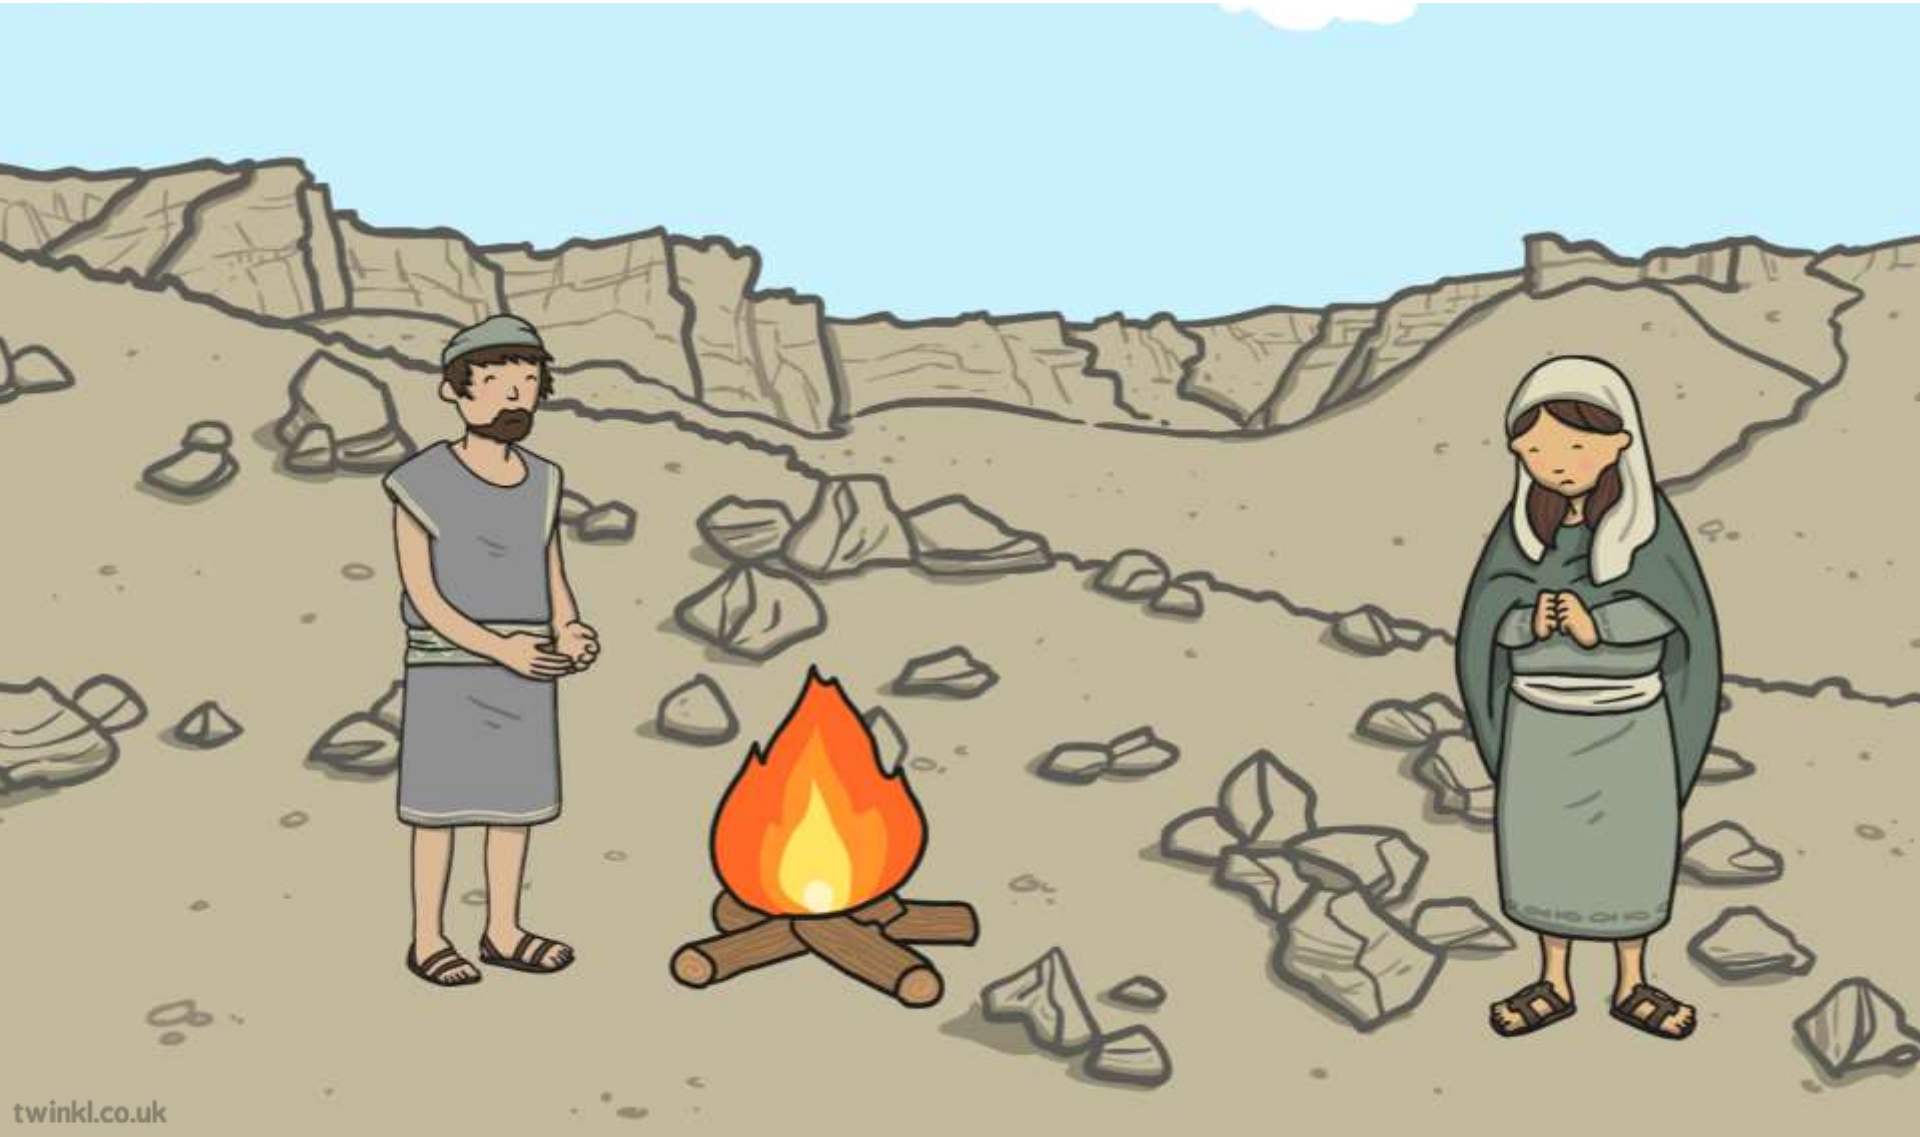

God told Adam and Eve they could eat fruit from all the trees in the garden except the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.

Eve saw how beautiful the tree in the middle of the garden was and its fruit looked very good to eat. The serpent lied to Eve and she ate the fruit from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. She gave some to Adam and he also ate the fruit.

Adam and Eve had to leave their beautiful home because they had not been obedient. After that they had to work hard and had many troubles.
