Starter: Can you write sentences using the words below?

unkind

unhappy

untidy

Lets Read:

Hi Duncan,
It is me red crayon and we need to talk. You make me work harder than any of the other crayons and it is not fair!

All year long, I wear myself out colouring fire engines and strawberries. I have coloured rosy red apples and butterflies. I have coloured pretty flowers and I even coloured Red Riding Hood. You even make me work in the holidays! I have to colour the Santa's at Christmas and all the hearts on Valentine 's Day! I need a long rest because I am tired. Can I go on holiday for a week?

Your overworked friend,

Red Crayon

Second read: Read the text and find the missing words.

1. I have coloured _____ apples.
2. You even make me work in the _____.
3. I need a _____ rest because I am _____.
4. Can I go on _____ for a week?

LO: To hot seat a character.

To write questions.

I am going to take on the role of the red crayon. What questions would you like to ask me? Tell your partner.

I do: Write a question:

Why are you cross with Duncan?

We do: What other questions would you like to ask me?

why	where	would
did	will	how

Write them down on your whiteboard.

Now you are going to work with your partner.

Choose a coloured crayon.

Your partner needs to write down some questions they would like to ask you. Swap over.
