

Dear boys and girls,

My name is Elvis the Elf. I'm very sorry I came into your classroom at break time and messed it all up. I promise I won't do it again Haha!

In our next unit, we are going to be learning to write instructions.

What do you know about instructions? Tell your partner.

How do they help us?

Starter- Play Simon says giving the children simple instructions to follow.

LO: To predict

What do you think we are going to write instructions for?

How do you think we can catch Elvis?

We do:

You do:

Write what you think our instructions are going to be about.

For example, I think the instructions are for catching an elf.
