

Thursday

What is a character?

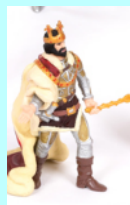

What is a setting?

Did you answer the questions above correctly?

Characters are the people or animals in a story.

A setting is the place where the story happens.

Look at the pictures below and decide which ones show a story character and which ones show a story setting.

Explain to your grown up how you know.