What is missing?

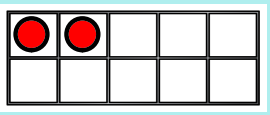

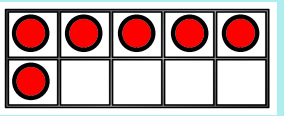

What is missing?

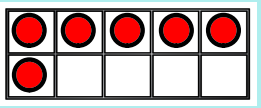

What is missing?

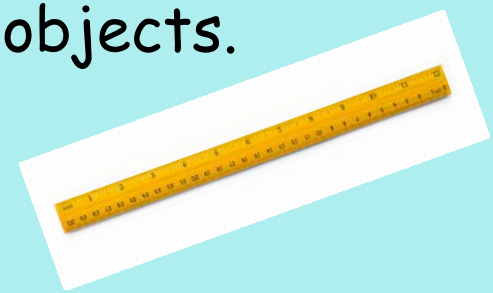

Here are some pictures of tools we use to measure objects.

Can you find some big objects in your home and have a go at using one of the tools to measure?

If you don't have any of the tools in the picture, try drawing round your foot on paper; make 10 feet and practise measuring objects putting the feet side by side.

