Monday

This week we will be starting to learn some facts about pirates. We are then going to create our own information leaflet about pirates.

Task: Can you write down all the things you know about pirates already. You could write a list or create a mind map.

Can you use picture and words?