Thursday 25th March
LO: To write a story

Read the WAGOLL with your partner.

What features can you find?

What do you like about the story?

Today you are going to finish writing your story and edit and improve.

What features are you going to include?

Who is your character?

Where do they go?

Who captures them?

How do they escape?

I do

As she crept away from the dungeons, she met a small girl who was all alone. Because she looked friendly, the empress decided to trust her and explained the problem she had.
"Please help me!" begged the empress, "I need to return to my home town before the warriors take it over."
"Why don't you just walk home?" the young girl enquired.
"I don't know the way and it is very far," she exclaimed.

We do

As she crept away from the dungeons, she met a small girl who was all alone. Because she looked friendly, the empress decided to trust her and explained the problem she had.
"Please help me!" begged the empress, "I need to return to my home town before the warriors take it over."
"Why don't you just walk home?" the young girl enquired.
"I don't know the way and it is very far," she exclaimed.

Work with your partner to continue the speech using the correct features of speech.

You do

As she crept away from the dungeons, she met a small girl who was all alone. Because she looked friendly, the empress decided to trust her and explained the problem she had.
"Please help me!" begged the empress, "I need to return to my home town before the warriors take it over."
"Why don't you just walk home?" the young girl enquired.
"I don't know the way and it is very far," she exclaimed.

Read through your story. Then continue to write your own.

Success Steps

Past tense.
Range of conjunctions/sentence types
Expanded noun phrases
Punctuation
Direct speech
Conditional conjunctions
Fronted adverbials
Adverbs
Embedded clause
Ed clauses as sentence openers