Wednesday 24th March
LO: To write a story

Read the WAGOLL with your partner.

What features can you find?

What do you like about the story?

Today you are going to continue to write your story.

What features are you going to include?

Who is your character?

Where do they go?

Who captures them?

How do they escape?

I do

Trapped in the miserable, grim dungeon, she wailed in despair. If only she could find a way to escape, she might be able to get back home. Staring in to the darkness, she hatched a plan. She knew the guard slept directly outside the bars of her jail, with a key attached to his belt. If she could find a way to get the key, she could escape.

We do

Trapped in the miserable, grim dungeon, she wailed in despair. If only she could find a way to escape, she might be able to get back home. Staring in to the darkness, she hatched a plan. She knew the guard slept directly outside the bars of her jail, with a key attached to his belt. If she could find a way to get the key, she could escape.

Work with your partner to write the next part of the story and use a conditional conjunction.

You do

Trapped in the miserable, grim dungeon, she wailed in despair. If only she could find a way to escape, she might be able to get back home. Staring in to the darkness, she hatched a plan. She knew the guard slept directly outside the bars of her jail, with a key attached to his belt. If she could find a way to get the key, she could escape.

Read through your story, editing and improving your work and then continue writing.

Success Steps

Past tense.
Range of conjunctions/sentence types
Expanded noun phrases
Punctuation
Direct speech
Conditional conjunctions
Fronted adverbials
Adverbs
Embedded clause
Ed clauses as sentence openers