Wednesday 17th March
LO: To use direct speech

f	t	r
l	ie	c
d	p	s

Find 10 words: they must use /ie/ and they can only use the blue letters. Here is my list.

flies
cried cries lie lies ties trier tried tries tied pie driest

I do

Add in the correct punctuation

"You have to get to the city," she told him.

We do

Put the writing inside your poly-pocket and use your whiteboard pen to add the correct punctuation.

"Don't worry," she assured, "you'll find help in the most unexpected of places."

You do

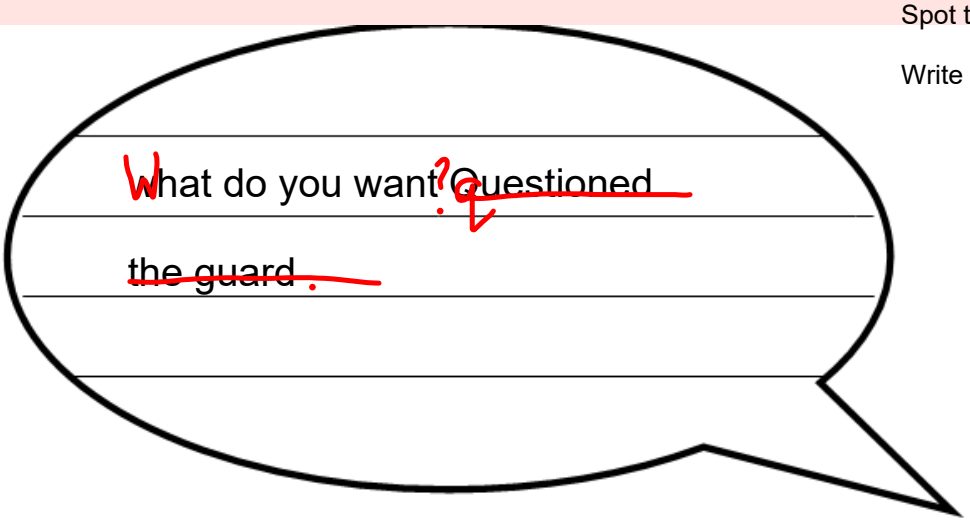

Add the correct punctuation.

"How will I get there?" asked the prince.

"Help me to get the key!" exclaimed the prince.

Spot the mistakes

Write the correct speech.

Which of the following are rules of speech punctuation?

1. Put the speech marks around the spoken words
2. Put the speech marks around the reporting clause
3. Put the comma inside the speech marks
4. Use a question mark instead of a comma, if the spoken words are asking a

Which of these is correct? Explain your choice to your partner.

1. 'We are trying to decide how to get away from the guards,' they said.
2. 'We are trying to decide how to get away from the guards, they said.
3. 'We are trying to decide how to get away from the guards they said.
4. 'We are trying to decide how to get away from the guards.' they said.

Which of these is correct? Explain your choice to your partner.

1. We was going to visit our granny that day.
2. We were going to visit our granny that day.
3. Them two were going to visit their granny.
4. We could of visited our granny that day.

When writing speech, where does the comma go?

1. After you close the inverted commas.
2. Before you close the inverted commas.
3. At the end of the sentence.
4. For a contraction.

Which of these are correct. Explain your choice to your partner.

1. 'The strangers are everywhere'! exclaimed the prince.
2. 'The strangers are everywhere! exclaimed the prince.
3. 'The strangers are everywhere!' exclaimed the prince.
4. The strangers are everywhere!' exclaimed the prince.