Thursday 19th November
LO: To use adverbials phrases.

Nov 11-13:30

Look at pages 22-23.

Nov 11-13:36

Listen! Hear the shieldwall clatter!
Clatter-Bash! Clatter-Bash!
Look! The shield-wall looks like a brightly coloured snake!
Battlefield
Promised land and silver by their leaders, Grim and Uggla fight in many battles. Years of war and bloodshed follow. It can't go on like this! Peace must come soon.
Viking women and children camp in a safe place.
Screams and battle cries!
Who's who?
Saxons and Vikings look so alike!

Look at the adverbs. Decide what type of adverb they are.

Surprisingly	In addition	During this era
almost	In 878	Valiantly
Often	On the bloody battlefield	Arriving on their boats
Additionally	When	In Britain
On sandy shores	afterwards	Fiercely

How?
When?
How often?
Where?
How much?

I do

I will choose an adverb and use it to write a sentence about the Viking battlefield.

Nov 11-13:34

We do

With your partner, choose an adverb and use it to write a sentence about the Viking battlefield.

Nov 11-13:34

You do

Choose an adverb and use it to write a sentence about the Viking battlefield.
Write at least 4 sentences.

Nov 11-13:34