Tuesday 9th March

LO: To write a short story (pre-assessment)

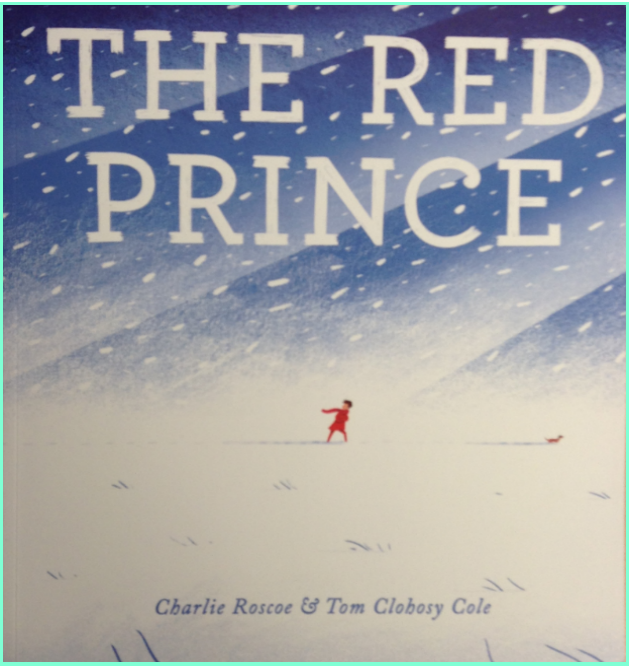

Yesterday you made inferences using this illustration.

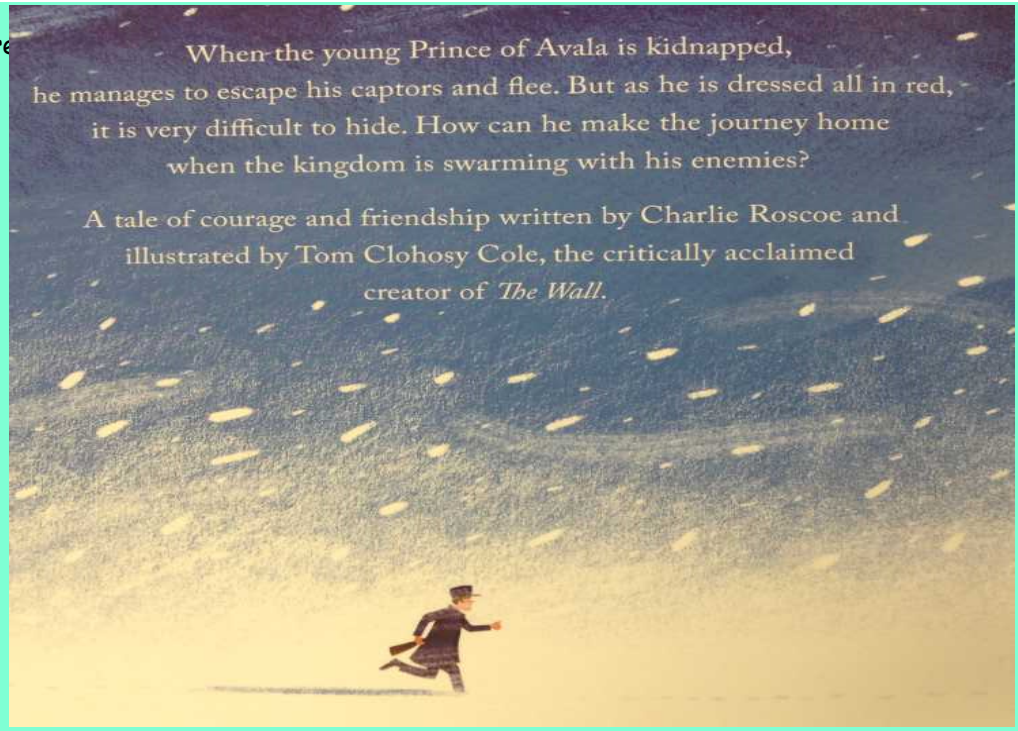

- What do you think will happen?
- Does it remind you of any other stories?
- Where do you think it is set?
- Who is the main character?
- How do the colours make you feel? What does this indicate about the text?
- Why is the boy so small on the page?
- What do you think the title of the book is?

This is the title

and authors of our book

Here

When the young Prince of Avala is kidnapped, he manages to escape his captors and flee. But as he is dressed all in red, it is very difficult to hide. How can he make the journey home when the kingdom is swarming with his enemies?
A tale of courage and friendship written by Charlie Roscoe and illustrated by Tom Clohosy Cole, the critically acclaimed creator of The Wall.

Book review:

The Red Prince is a sweet adventure story book based around the theme of friendship, family, team work and courage. When the poor Prince is left to look after his Island of Avala, when his parents go away, he is kidnapped and taken by a mysterious group of people, who soon take over his beloved island. It is up to the Prince to escape from these wicked people,however, this is very difficult to do when dressed all in red! With the help of some unexpected people, the Prince must make his way back home and take back his island.

Children to write a short story about The Red Prince.

C - Use a story board

Long ago there lived a king and Queen who ruled the kingdom of Avala.

unexpected escaped
kidnapped