Tuesday 24th November
LO: To use conjunctions

Nov 11-13:30

I do
Read the sentences. Identify the main clause. Identify the subordinate clause. Write the sentence in two ways.

Some Vikings were peaceful farmers, although most people believe them to be bloodthirsty pirates.

Some Vikings were peaceful farmers, although most people believe them to be bloodthirsty pirates.

main clause
this is the main idea which makes sense on its own subordinate clause

this comes after the conjunction and only makes sense if added to the main clause.

Nov 11-13:36

We do
Read the sentences. Identify the main clause. Identify the subordinate clause. Write the sentence in two ways.

The Vikings had second hand swords, because the swords were expensive.
When the Vikings raided the monasteries, the monks were terrified.
If the Vikings wanted to make jewellery, they stole gold and silver.
Because the swords were expensive, the Vikings had second hand ones.
The monks were terrified, when the Vikings raided the monasteries.
The stole gold and silver, if the wanted to make jewellery.

Nov 11-13:36

You do
Think of a simple sentence about the Vikings.
Extend the sentence using a subordinating conjunction.
Identify the main clause and the subordinate clause.
Write sentences using the conjunction as a fronted adverbial with a comma.

e.g. Because the monasteries were near the coast line, they were easy to loot.

Use your sentences from yesterday to help.

Nov 11-13:36