

Monday 17th May

LO: To use the possessive apostrophe

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zNFPnVz7JB4>

Starter

Multiple choice

Which of these sentences is correct?

- a) "Where can I find a new home"? asked the young refugee.
- b) "Where can I find a new home" asked the young refugee.
- c) "Where can I find a new home?" asked the young refugee.
- d) "Where can I find a new home? asked the young refugee"

Explain why the other options are incorrect.

Ido

Which of these is incorrect?

- A. Bradfords involvement in the English Civil War of 1642 to 1651 was of some importance.
- B. Bradfords' involvement in the English Civil War of 1642 to 1651 was of some importance.
- C. Bradford's involvement in the English Civil War of 1642 to 1651 was of some importance.
- D. Bradfords involvement in the English Civil War of 1642 to 1651 was of some importance'

We do

Which of these is incorrect?

A. Some people were loyal to the Crown, but the majority were on parliaments side.

B. Some people were loyal to the Crown, but the majority were on parliaments' side.

C. Some people we're loyal to the Crown, but the majority were on parliaments side.

Some people were loyal to the Crown, but the majority were on parliament's side.

You do

Complete the multiple choice questions.

Which of the following are rules of possession?

- A. The apostrophe goes before the 's' for singular possession
- B. The apostrophe goes after the 's' for plural possession or words that end in an 's'
- C. The apostrophe goes before the s' in any word that ends in an 's'
- D. Words that are contractions are the same as possession because they use an apostrophe

Which of these is correct? Explain your choice to your partner. Why are the other sentences incorrect?

- A. Michael Rosens father was born in the USA.
- B. Michael Rosens' father was born in the USA
- C. Michael Rosen's father was born in the USA

Which of these is correct? Explain your choice to your partner.

- A. The book is better than its' cover would suggest.
- B. The book is better than it's cover would suggest.
- C. The book is better than its cover would suggest.
- D. The book is' better than its cover would suggest.

When using possession, where does the apostrophe go?

- A. After the s.
- B. Before the s.
- C. At the end of the sentence.
- D. For a contraction.

Which of these are correct. Explain your choice to your partner.

- A. Its going to rain later.
- B. Its' going to rain later.
- C. It's going to rain later.
- D. Its going to rain later'.

Which of the following explains the difference between singular and plural possession.

- A. For plural possession the apostrophe goes after the 's'
- B. For singular and plural possession the apostrophe goes before the 's'
- C. For singular and plural possession the apostrophe goes after the 's'
- D. For singular possession the apostrophe goes before the 's' unless the word ends in 's'

|

