I do

I'm going to use a singular possessive apostrophe. The person it belongs to is (name of migrant). The poem belongs to them.

I am going to write their name first, then the apostrophe, then the s. I will now add in the poem. Benjamin's poem is interesting to read.

I'm going to use a plural possessive apostrophe. The people it belongs to are the migrants. The house belongs to them. I am going to write migrants first, then the s, then the apostrophe. There is the migrants' new house.
