LO: To understand how people have a shared responsibility to help protect the world around them

Think about how Morris, the magpie, was feeling when he realised that what he had collected was harming the local environment.

