Wednesday 26th May

LO: To write a biography

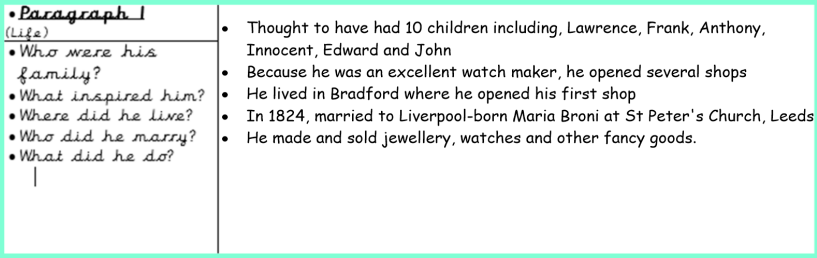

I do

• Paragraph 1 (Life)
• Who were his family? • What inspired him? • Where did he live? • Who did he marry? • What did he do?	• Thought to have had 10 children including, Lawrence, Frank, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John • Because he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops • He lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop • In 1824, married to Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church, Leeds • He made and sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.

In 1824, Antonio married Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church in Leeds. Antonio, a family man, was thought to have 10 children including, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John who worked in his shops. Since he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops across West Yorkshire. Mostly, he lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop. Antonio's shops sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.

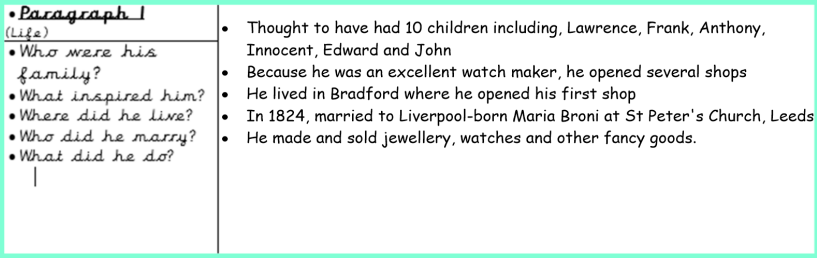

We do

• Paragraph 1 (Life)
• Who were his family? • What inspired him? • Where did he live? • Who did he marry? • What did he do?	• Thought to have had 10 children including, Lawrence, Frank, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John • Because he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops • He lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop • In 1824, married to Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church, Leeds • He made and sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.

In 1824, Antonio married Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church in Leeds. Antonio, a family man, was thought to have 10 children including, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John who worked in his shops. Since he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops across West Yorkshire. Mostly, he lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop. Antonio's shops sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.

You do

• Paragraph 1 (Life)
• Who were his family? • What inspired him? • Where did he live? • Who did he marry? • What did he do?	• Thought to have had 10 children including, Lawrence, Frank, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John • Because he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops • He lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop • In 1824, married to Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church, Leeds • He made and sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.

In 1824, Antonio married Liverpool-born Maria Broni at St Peter's Church in Leeds. Antonio, a family man, was thought to have 10 children including, Anthony, Innocent, Edward and John who worked in his shops. Since he was an excellent watch maker, he opened several shops across West Yorkshire. Mostly, he lived in Bradford where he opened his first shop. Antonio's shops sold jewellery, watches and other fancy goods.